

Postcards to My Child

Think about any questions or concerns you want to share with your child.

Write these questions and concerns—or even a short note about your worries—on the cards below. Share the cards with your child or use them to remind yourself of the questions you want to ask.

PARENT ENGAGEMENT MODULES SERIES
Module 7: Bullying—What It is and How to Help Your Child

A large, empty rounded rectangular box with a black border, intended for notes or discussion.A large, empty rounded rectangular box with a black border, intended for notes or discussion.A large, empty rounded rectangular box with a black border, intended for notes or discussion.A large, empty rounded rectangular box with a black border, intended for notes or discussion.