

Resources for Families

This handout specifies useful websites, videos, and other information from the module.

WEBSITES

Stopbullying.gov

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services has developed website called stopbullying.gov. It is filled with useful information for parents and children about bullying. All of the website resources and videos are available in Spanish. The following are some useful webpages from the site:

- Cyberbullying Prevention

This page shares information about being aware of what your child is doing online and how to handle cyberbullying: <https://www.stopbullying.gov/cyberbullying/prevention/index.html>.

- What Is Cyberbullying

This page shares information about cyberbullying concerns, laws that deal with it, and the frequency of occurrences: <https://www.stopbullying.gov/cyberbullying/what-is-it/index.html>.

- Digital Awareness for Parents

This page shares apps and programs parents can use to monitor their child online: <https://www.stopbullying.gov/cyberbullying/digital-awareness-for-parents/index.html>.

NetSmartz

The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children—funded by the U.S. Department of Justice—has created a website with videos and resources for kids about how to be safe online:

<https://www.missingkids.org/NetSmartz>.

Prevent Child Abuse America

Prevent Child Abuse America is funded by the Office of Child Abuse Prevention. Their website has useful information on how to keep children safe and how to report suspected abuse. This page shares information on how to talk to your children about cyberbullying:

<https://preventchildabuse.org/resource/parenting-tip-talking-about-bullying/>.