

How would you like to be involved?

Schools want parents to be a part of their child's education and a part of the school community. The following are some ways parents can be involved at school. Consider which options you would be interested in or would like to learn more about.

- Helping in the classroom (interacting with children)
- Helping with an event after school hours (carnival, picnic, family night, etc.)
- Attending a parent meeting with a teacher or a counselor
- Attending a parent group (led by other parents)
- Attending a meeting about a topic that interests you
- Helping assemble items (like art projects or packets to go home)
- Helping in the classroom (not interacting with children—filing papers, stapling packets, etc.)
- Watching a school performance or school assembly
- Attending a school sporting event or music event
- Organizing a school event
- Baking for a bake sale
